NSU Libraries support the mission of Northwestern State University.

Northwestern State University Libraries provide instruction, resources, services, and facilities to support learning, teaching, research, intellectual growth, and enrichment of the academic experience for all who seek knowledge.

The library faculty and staff prepare students to acquire and use information to become productive members of society.

In addition, the library faculty and staff promote the economic development and improvement in the quality of life of the citizens in its region through programming and outreach.
Doors to the Library

925 University Parkway, Natchitoches, LA 71497

(318) 357-4477

library@nsula.edu
Databases and tutorials are the resources most used by online and distance education. NSU Libraries provide access to over 100 databases, many of them full-text, through LOUIS, the state academic consortium.

To access the databases, find library.nsula.edu and click on “Database Directory” to use the hyperlinked lists.
Departmental Liaisons

library@nsula.edu --look for the “Contact Us” link.

Liaison Librarians by Subject Area:

Business, CIS: Sherri Voebel
CAPA: Debbie Huntington
Education: Abbie Landry
HHE: Sharon Wolff
Humanities, PSYC, SOWK: Patricia Brown
Nursing and Allied Health [TBA]
Sciences and Engineering: Michael Matthews
Social Sciences: Mary Linn Wernet, Abbie Landry
To borrow resources not held by NSU, use InterLibrary Loan. It’s a free service to faculty, staff, and students. Go to the library webpage and click on “InterLibrary Loan” to set up your account, or call Jackie Hawkins at (318) 357-5465.
Library Instruction and Information Literacy

• For course-related instruction, please contact the instruction librarian, Dr. Patricia Brown, or see the LibGuide “for Faculty.”

• For online classes, we can use WebEx (live or recorded).

• Information literacy transforms basic library instruction into “learning for life” (L4L).
Online Help

LibGuides are online tutorials for general information plus subject guides for specific departments and courses (bibliographies, databases, and information on research).

libguides.nsula.edu
Reference

Information and reference assistance, headed by librarian Sherri Voebel, is available most hours the library is open, including evenings and Sundays. Reference staff will assist you in person or by phone, email, or text. Subject guides and tutorials are also available at libguides.nsula.edu
Handouts and links are available for your Moodle shell. We can work with you on design and content.
For more help, contact us:
https://library.nsula.edu/contactus/

Patricia Brown, instruction librarian: brownpa@nsula.edu
Abbie Landry, director: landry@nsula.edu
Sherri Voebel, reference librarian: voebels@nsula.edu
Department liaisons, as assigned.
Circulation desk: (318) 357-4477
Northwestern State University is a responsive, Student-oriented institution that is committed to the creation, dissemination, and acquisition of knowledge through teaching, research, and service. The University maintains as its highest priority excellence in teaching in graduate and undergraduate programs. Northwestern State University prepares its Students to become productive members of society and promotes economic development and improvements in the quality of life of the citizens in its region.